Abstract

The Central Product Classification (CPC) Version 1.0 does not contain any indication of the links with ISIC Rev.3. for wholesale and retail trade services.

The paper proposes appropriate products for each trade service and lists the corresponding four-digit ISIC Rev.3 codes next to the relevant CPC subclass.

Distributive trade*Links between ISIC Rev.3 and CPC Ver.1

The Central Product Classification (CPC) Version 1.0, which was considered and approved by the United Nations Statistical Commission at its twenty-ninth session, in 1997, replaced the Provisional Central Product Classification (Provisional CPC).

With a view to accommodating users of CPC wishing to identify the relationship between CPC and ISIC, each CPC subclass has a reference to the ISIC Rev.3 industry or industries in which most of the goods or services in question are generally produced.

For wholesale and retail trade services (divisions 61 and 62) the different types of wholesaling or retailing services offered and the different types of goods sold are distinguished in CPC Version 1.0 so that data on goods sold can be collected and compared across all the different forms of wholesale and retail trade services.

However it is up to the user to choose the appropriate products and product groupings when associating them with the different forms of wholesale and retail trade services. Neither is there any indication of the links with ISIC Rev.3.

The paper:

- proposes appropriate products for each trade service
- lists the corresponding four-digit ISIC Rev.3 codes next to the relevant CPC subclass

This can, by definition, only be a guideline which should be adapted to national practices.

Annex 1 sets out the ISIC/CPC links. For each ISIC class it gives

- The code and title
- The explanatory note
- The types of service linked
- The types of products linked

Annex 2 sets out the CPC/ISIC links. For each CPC subclass it lists the corresponding ISIC codes.

Annex 3 is a graphic overview by CPC groups of the information set out in Annex 2

This draft includes comments from Statistics Canada.
